

Please pray the following prayer of release from curses:

Father, I believe that Jesus is your only begotten, precious, divine and holy Son. Jesus died on the cross to set me free from all my sins, and rose again from the dead.

I surrender my life to you completely as my Lord. I confess and renounce all my sins, past and present, known and unknown (you can name each individual sin. For example, sexual and occult, and any other sins you have been involved in).

I renounce ungodly covenants that I have made with, or was forced to make with ... (name the individuals).

I commit myself to destroy any detestable material in my possession. (For example, sexual and occult related material, including: books, magazines and objects, etc). I now declare that Satan has no legal grounds to operate in my life.

I thank you Father, for the promise of forgiveness of sins, in your word. (Psalm 103:12; Isaiah 1:18; 1 John 1:9).

I forgive all who have ever harmed me in any way. I forgive ... (you can name each individual).

I ask you Father, to release me from the curses associated with any sins my ancestors may have been involved in, or any curses that have come upon me as a result of any sins I've committed, or self-imposed curses.

Father, I trust in you, and believe that no weapon formed against me will prosper. I believe that Jesus took upon Himself every curse that could ever come upon me, including all my sickness, grief, pain and sorrow. Therefore, I thank you Father, that you have released me from every curse over my life.

In Jesus Name! Amen!

Are you ready to get your life in top shape and condition? You will begin to see a dramatic difference in all aspects of your life: spiritually, physically, emotionally and mentally, as you free yourself from all those curses that have been devastating your life. You will be totally and radically transformed as you begin your spiritual relationship with God, and draw closer to Him through powerful and effective prayer, fasting and bible study!

Special Note: You must never be forced into making ungodly covenants with anyone. The only godly covenant we make is with God (and He gives us free choice). Please make sure that you break any ungodly covenants.

Release From Curses!

Do you feel as though your life is bombarded with continual frustration? One tragedy after another? Accidents, sicknesses, deaths, and other painful and grievous events continue to run in your family? You feel hopeless, are in distress, and without a clue as to what is happening in your life? Cannot find a logical explanation? Perhaps you feel as though a negative force is working against you?

Well you need to look for the solution in the right place - the supernatural; and stop looking in all the wrong places - the physical realm (the things of this world), because the answer is that your life may be under a curse. Otherwise, tragedies will continue to plague one generation after another, and you will always be treating the symptoms, and not the underlying cause. You will spend all your money on treatment, insurance and funerals until you are left broke, and still be in the same condition, or worse than you are in now!

Deuteronomy 28:15-68 describes a list of curses that one may be under, for disobedience to God's Laws, and the only remedy is:

- 1) Doing a household cleansing to destroy abominable and detestable items. (Please read tract - 'No Idols!')
- 2) Repentance. (Please read tract - 'Repent or Perish!')
- 3) Obedience to God's commandments. (Please read tract - 'Ten Commandments')
- 4) Asking God to release you from any generational curses.

Examples of forbidden sins:

1) Idolatry and worshiping false gods - Includes detestable practices such as sacrificing one's son or daughter in the fire, fortune telling (divination), sorcery, spiritism, consulting mediums, engaging in witchcraft, interpreting omens, casting spells, using tarot cards, ouija boards, charms, amulets, crystal ball and reading horoscopes. These practices will open doors for demonic activity. Gluttony (overeating and drinking), greed (excessive love for food, or wealth) and covetousness (desiring what belongs to someone else), are also forms of idolatry. Our God is a jealous God who tolerates no rivals. God is Spirit, and His worshippers must worship Him in Spirit and in truth. We are forbidden to make a representation of God in any shape or form. This includes statues, icons, figurines and rosary beads. We are to seek the Lord alone and fear Him; live in obedience to His commandments; love Him with all our heart, mind, soul and strength; and serve Him faithfully and wholeheartedly. God demands first place and top priority, and complete commitment. We never place anything or anyone before, or above the true God in our lives. God says "be holy, because I am holy." This means we are to separate ourselves from corrupt people, and be completely sanctified to the Lord. We are to be morally and spiritually pure. We never consult mediums about the future. We listen to the Lord's true prophets who speak in His name. God fulfills the predictions of His messengers. Ungodly covenants also bring curses. The only covenant we make is called a scriptural and godly covenant with Almighty God, in the Name and Blood of Jesus.

2) Unnatural/illicit sexual relations - This includes homosexuality, bestiality, incest, prostitution, adultery, fornication and other forbidden sexual practices. Those who are involved in such detestable practices will not inherit the Kingdom of God. The Bible gives us strong warnings from Israel's history, and mentions that God killed twenty-three thousand in one day, for sexual immorality (1 Corinthians 10:8). In the Old Testament, the death penalty was given to unlawful sexual relations. (Leviticus 18). God created differences between men and women. Transvestism and homosexuality are prohibited perversions. Our body is sacred, and a temple of the Holy Spirit who lives in us, and our bodies are to be used for God's glory. By the power of God's Holy Spirit, the Christian can be helped to resist all forms of temptation and sin, including sexual immorality (1 Corinthians 6:18-20). God gives the Holy Spirit for our sanctification. The word 'sanctify' means to set apart for holy use, or to set apart as holy.

3) Self-reliance - Is a form of idolatry, because it means depending on flesh for one's strength. In other words, trusting in oneself or the physical things of the world, instead of trusting in Almighty God. Scripture says: 'cursed is the man who depends on flesh for his strength,' and gives us an illustration of a man who lives in the parched places of the desert, in a salt land where no one lives. (Jeremiah 17:5-6). Self-reliance brings the curse of poverty. Those who love the world, instead of God, commit the sin of spiritual adultery, because they are spiritually unfaithful. The physical things of this world are temporary and passing away, but he who does the will of God lives forever. Our relationship with God is eternal 1 Jn 2:15-17.

4) Oppression - May include giving gifts to the rich, withholding wages, and oppressing the poor to increase one's wealth. One of the curses associated with oppression is poverty. He who trusts in himself, or the physical things of this world is living with a curse. There is a strong warning to rich oppressors in James 5:1-6. Those who gain riches by unjust means will lose their riches when their lives are half gone (Jeremiah 17:11). Whoever is kind to the poor and needy honors God, but whoever closes his eyes to the poor will receive many curses. The righteous care for justice for the poor.

(Please read tract - 'You Can Be Set Free!' and 'Power Of Fasting').

If you have several of the following problems, or they occur frequently, the chance that you are under a curse increases:

- 1) Suicides and unnatural or untimely deaths, that pass from generation to generation (can be either instant, or a slow and painful death).
- 2) Being "accident prone"
- 3) Barrenness and unfruitfulness (a tendency to miscarry, cysts, and other female related problems).
- 4) Repeated or chronic illnesses or wasting disease.
- 5) Mental and/or emotional breakdown (occurring frequently).
- 6) Humiliation (shame and disgrace).
- 7) Poverty (without the basic necessities of life, e.g. food, clothing, shelter).
- 8) Downfall, failure and a miserable defeat.

The Bible tells us that misfortune pursues the sinner; but prosperity is the reward of the righteous. The Lord's curse is on the house of the wicked; but He blesses the house of the righteous. He who trusts in his riches will fall; but the righteous will thrive like a green leaf. He who trusts in the Lord will prosper.

Remember: Curses have no power over those who:

- 1) Have repented.
- 2) Are in a right relationship with God.
- 3) Live in obedience to God's commandments.
- 4) Live a life of holiness and godliness - with prayer, fasting and bible study.

God promises that no weapon formed against His faithful servants will prosper:

Isaiah 54:17 - no weapon forged against you will prevail, and you will refute every tongue that accuses you. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and this is their vindication from me," declares the LORD.

Referring to the Lord's servants, who continue to serve Him faithfully and wholeheartedly.

Luke 10:19 - I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.

The snakes and scorpions are evil spirits, and the enemy is Satan himself.

2 Corinthians 10:4-5 - The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. Referring to spiritual weapons in a spiritual battle (which have divine power to demolish strongholds of "imagination," and "every high thing", including arguments and every pretension defiantly raised against the knowledge of God, and taking captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ). Not the carnal, physical weapons that are cherished by the world, and formed by human hands.

Scripture also mentions that an undeserved curse does not come to rest. Death and life are in the power of the tongue; and those who love it will eat its fruit. Therefore no matter what one may say, the spoken or written curse will have a boomerang effect, and return to the sender, who will reap the consequences.

Therefore, the only remedy in the life of someone who is living under a curse is:

- 1) Household cleansing - Process of eliminating anything that would interfere in, or hinder our spiritual relationship with God. For example: burn occult items, including sorcery books; smash statues to pieces; and rip filthy magazines to shreds (Please read tract - 'No Idols!')
- 2) True, heartfelt repentance - Where one confesses and renounces his past, present, known and unknown sins to God, in heartfelt prayer, with godly sorrow. (Please read tract - 'Repent or Perish!'). There are 2 kinds of sorrow: godly and worldly. Godly sorrow is experiencing God's divine grace in our lives, and leads to repentance. It is God-centered sorrow over transgressing God's laws (2 Corinthians 7:10). Worldly sorrow leads to death, because it is self-centered grief (feeling sorry) over the disastrous consequences of sin. (Please read tract - 'Repent or Perish!')
- 3) Obedience to God's Laws and Commandments - Christ came to fulfill and establish the Law; not to abolish it. Therefore, we uphold the Law. (Romans 3:31) The Old Testament commandments are magnified in the New Testament. Obedience to God's commandments bring blessings; and disobedience to God's commandments bring curses (Please read tract - 'Ten Commandments').
- 4) Break curses - Pray to God to release you from generational curses associated with any sins your ancestors may have been involved in.
- 5) Casting out demons - That may have entered through open doors as a result of, for example, occult activity. Some demons come out only by prayer and fasting.
